Community Meeting in Snohomish County Showcases Small Business Resources

Washington State PTAC sponsors Event helping Small Businesses in Economic Downturn

Everett, WA – The Washington State Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC) along with several local partners will be coming together to highlight resources for small businesses.

Non-Profits such as TOC Management Services, Seattle Public Schools, Washington Community Alliance for Self-Help (CASH), Small Business Development Center of Everett, and for-profit Key Bank will be available to share and answer questions for small businesses of all kinds.

PTAC is a division under the Economic Development Council that is dedicated to continue developing Snohomish County as a competitive place to do business.

The community meeting will be held at the Economic Development Council of Snohomish County on December 3, 2008 in Everett, WA from 6pm to 8pm.

EDC of Snohomish County
728 134 ST. SW Suite 217
